IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America

When in the Course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

I pledge Allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

The Constitution of the United States of America

Preamble

We the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessing of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish the Constitution of the United States of America.

As Independence Day comes around once again, we would like to take the opportunity to remember that we would not be a free country if it were not for the brave men and women who have sacrificed of themselves to secure and maintain that freedom. To all of you who are serving, or have served in the Armed Forces of The United States of America, and to your families:

A very sincere THANK YOU!

Happy Birthday America!

When we heard this story we had to share it with you.

Sean Valizki, E6 Petty officer, U S Navy Seal

Petty Officer Valizki became a Navy Seal in the summer of 2008 and quickly made his way up through the ranks to an E6 Petty Officer. On June 14, 2009, Petty Officer Valizki was killed by an IED in Kuwait while attempting to save another officer. He had already saved 5 others. He is but one example of the sacrifices our brave service men and women are willing to make in order that others may live free.

Here is a list of names we received in response to our e-mail request last month.

This is but a small representation of those men and women who have laid it all on the line for our freedom. We hope you will join us in honoring all of those who have sacrificed for our freedom. Our Armed Forces truly do Rock.

Stephen Brian Anderson II, Sergeant, US Army

Harry C. Bond, U S Army (WWII)

Thomas Brandon, SPC, U S Army

Johnnie Davis, Seaman, U S Navy

Paige Davis, PV2, U S Army

Zack Davis, PFC, U S Army

James E. Fox Sr., U S Army (WWI)

Jimmy Fox, Engineman 3rd Class, U S Navy (71-75)

James Hay, SGT, U S Army

Randall Lewis Sr., PFC, U S Marine Corp. (WWII)

David Clark Miller, Staff Sgt., U S Air Force

Ralph F. Oxley, Sgt., U S Air Force

James Roberts, SPC, U S Army

Dick L. Willeford, U S Army (Korean War)

On July 4, 2009, while you are celebrating our freedom, please join us in praying for our troops,
and for the great country we live in.

The United States of America, we may have our problems, but we're still the greatest country in the world.
